IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING CHILDREN TRAVELLING ABROAD

Travelling With Children or Children Travelling Alone

Immigration authorities in most countries are becoming increasingly vigilant when children are crossing international borders. Whether travelling alone or accompanied by an adult, each child travelling abroad must have a valid passport and may also require supporting documentation. Prior to any travel that includes a child, you should contact the embassy or consulate of all countries the child will be visiting to inquire about entry requirements.

Documentation To Facilitate Travel Abroad

The following documents may be required to support the entry of a child to another country:

- Birth certificate showing the names of both parents
- Legal documents pertaining to custody
- If the child is travelling with one parent, a letter signed and dated from the other parent authorizing travel (letter may have to be notarized)
- If the child is travelling with someone other than the parent, a letter signed and dated from both parents authorizing travel with that person (letter may have to be notarized)
- If the child is travelling alone, a letter signed and dated from both parents authorizing travel (letter may have to be notarized)
- If one of the parents is deceased, the death certificate.

Documentation And Tips To Facilitate The Return To Canada

The following tips may help to avoid delays when a child is returning to Canada:

- Always carry proper identification for yourself and the child - passport, birth certificate, citizenship card, Record of Landing (IMM 1000) or Indian Status Card.
- If you have legal custody of the child, carry with you copies of documents specifying custody rights.
- If you are not the legal guardian of the child, carry a letter of permission or authorization for you to have custody when entering Canada. When a parent is travelling alone with a child, a letter from the other parent can also facilitate the return of both the parent and the child. The letter should also contain telephone numbers where the parent or legal guardian can be contacted.
- If you are travelling as part of a caravan, be sure you are in the same vehicle as the child you are accompanying when arriving at a border crossing.
- Have the child memorize your home and/or office telephone number and teach him or her to call you in an emergency.

Custody Information

1. Custody arrangements in Canada may not be recognized in another country. In extreme cases, the child may not be able to leave the country visited. It is recommended that, before leaving on a trip, you check with the embassy or consulate of the country or countries the child will be visiting to determine what documentation may be required relating to the custody of the child. For further information, contact:

Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade
In Canada 1 800 387-3124
Outside Canada (613) 943-1055

2. If a custody dispute could possibly arise while travelling with the child, you should talk to a Canadian lawyer prior to your departure. We suggest you also read the publication, International Child Abductions: A Manual for Parents. For a free copy call:
